Co-Chain is derived from the word.. Co-Blockchain. Made from more than one type of blogging to coordinate and work together. Because each block type. There are a number of advantages and disadvantages to the concept of a blog. Come work with another kind. To help make the most of one type of blogging. Asian Fintech's started to use the first wave of Afin Token of 100,000,000 in three Afin business platforms from mid-year of 2018 onward. Afin's executives will have a range of meetings with their business partners and potential partners to negotiate future growth. This fund is to be generated from the Token sale of Pre ICO and ICO 1 to ICO 5.

Distribution Overview

Pre-ICO and ICO 1 to ICO 5 : Afin Coin sales start with the Pre-ICO sales with 2% (10,000,000 Afin).

- The Pre-ICO sale is available only for Afin's internal members such as sponsors and supporters.
- The ICO 1 to ICO 5, 18% (90,000,000 Afin) are to be carried globally.

The Referral and PR team, token team and Advisor team will be given a total of 30 percent of Afin coin for putting this project together. The condition is that these teams are not allowed to sell their token more than 50 percent of their coin after six months of ICO in trade market and another 50% after completion of one year of ICO. This is mainly ensuring that the ICO buyer's coin will retain value.

The Reserve Token (remaining 50%) will be kept and reserve for Afin's future projects. Afin will have full control of this and will make its decisions based on the market trends. Anything done with the reserve token will be announced publicly as well as to Afin coin holders and partners. However, Afin to use the

The estimation of coin value is based on the increasing price of Cryptocurrency in the international trade market. With this evidence, This indicates that in the future the market will be more lucrative and can expect high capital gain.

Afin vision is to become global auction platform of any products from antiques, luxurious to art products as par with top five auction house: Christie's, Sotheby's, Poly Auction, China Guardian and Heritage Auction, in the global platform. These top auction houses account half of global auction market value [26]. The report of McAndrew (2018) indicated that sales of public auction of fine and decorative are and antiques reached 28.5% in 2017 as show in the figure 18 below. This sale is "up 27% year to year with the uplift driven by strong sales at the high end" [26].

According to the McAndrew (2017) report, the events of art fairs or sales exist since six decades back and earliest from 1950 and 1960s. However, since 2000 there is geographically spread of Arts sales and grown immensely. In the year 2000, there were approximately more than 55 major international art fair was organized. This number increased rapidly in 2017 and there were more than 260 major fairs held internationally. In addition to this, there are more than 100 arts fair or sales were held regionally and locally on a smaller scale that cover arts and collectibles market.

In addition, the study of Zhong (2017), indicated that "In 2015, China's art market represented 32 per cent of the total global auction market and became the second-largest market globally in terms of total sales value for fine and decorative art" [27]. This indicates that market for arts are growing and auction market would be benefited. Afin is willing to enter in the arts and antique action market Afin Coin as a medium of currency exchange.

Afin will further diversifying its auction business platform in property and real-estate market. There are growing market of auctioning of properties. The finding of Wong and his team (2017) study indicated that the characteristics property auction such as "proximity to the city center, number of previous auction attempts and number of online viewers are positively related to sale price and sale probability" [28]. In this regard, Afin will focus its property auction offline and online with the current partners in Thailand and will further expands its property auction through Asia and other continents by accepting the Afin Coin as a medium of currency exchange.

In this context, Afin will synergized its core value and further strengthen the platform from the funding from first wave of Afin token:

- The Afin team is committed to be a main pillar on which the idea for decentralization rests upon
- Afin will build a free to use platform for everyone – dealerships, sellers, buyers, insurance companies, auctioneers, vehicle service centers, bloggers, writers, readers and anyone else who might benefit from it.
- Through the advertisement, the platform monetizes from the provided services and eventually get income from them.
- Afin to follow the blue ocean business strategy which has been adopted by all major Internet platforms such as Facebook, Google, Snapchat, Line. While the Afin platform to use but will contain a non-intrusive ads which will be the source for revenue provided add follows the local government policies.

Afin has a high level of expertise and technology in the auction and financial system and is supported by strong ties to the national auction system, supported by government in each country, and are able to make auction transactions effectively and efficiently. However, countries need to interconnect through the auction system. This will further enhance the government of each country systemizing the auction system, providing the best infrastructure and best prices.

Cryptocurrency mining, It's a topic that everyone who's interested in Cryptocurrency story has heard. In the past few years, there are several incidents that triggered a storm surge in the Cryptocurrency area, such as the sudden crossover value. Soaring up to ten times.

Because there are people who follow the news. Pay attention to bitcoin, make that moment. There are many investors, become a millionaire in a blink of an eye.

The good news of being a millionaire, the impact is wide. Many people see that Bitcoin is a shortcut to millions that are not beyond reach. Investors turned their attention to the business of Cryptocurrency. Some of you use the original cost of playing stock. Bring cash to exchange coins. To keep a profit in the future (trading line) some people who have enough technical knowledge. It is a computerized investment in the Crypto mining and especially of heavy mines. They bought an ASIC computer specially designed for digging Bitcoin. Bitcoin in this period is pretty. You have many profits since the first investment ever.

But in the end, the gold ends. With the anti-inflation mechanism of the chip itself. The longer the day. The so-called Difficulty will increase, so it takes more time to dig. And when to spend more time. It will affect the cost of digging electricity. Many mining investors have trouble digging, not worth paying for electricity. This event makes people interested in the message curtain call Cryptocurrency some misunderstand that. Digital mining has come to a dead end. But the truth is reversed.

Even though the mining of Bitcoin is experiencing difficulties, Luckily, the world of Cryptocurrency does not have just a Bitcoin. There are also many other coins, such as Ethereum, Zcash, DASH.These coins are collectively called Alternative Coin (ALT Coin).

The popular ALT Coin, such as Ethereum, can use the same computer that was used to dig Bitcoin (except the ASIC designed to dig only the Bitcoin), resulting in higher values of ALT Coin.

That means that digital mining has a future. If you choose the right coin. You can still make a profit. But even mining investment, will cost less and profit more than trading line. Most investors are also facing another major obstacle. That is technical knowledge.

Technical knowledge, it is very important for Mining investors. Investors are required to operate the Rig as required. If you have a deep understanding. It can be enhanced to dig more coins. Without technical knowledge. It is almost impossible to invest in the line.
